2/ In para 1 of the M.C's letter, he has stated that he has sanctioned the remission of the wrong demand of 180 candies of paddy and 30 mds of areca for the period from 1933-34 to 1937-38 (inclusive) in respect of S.Nos. 138 and 140 in Triambakapura village, which had been wrongly booked by one Sri Kittandur Rama Krishna Bhatta the Sthaladhikari looking after the properties of the mutt in Thirthahalli Tq. (vide paras 1 and 2 of letter dated 28/4/43 of the D.C Shimoga.

3) As regards the other two lands viz. S.Nos 21 and 140, which are stated to contain jungle growth and which require a heavy outlay of Rs 1000/- for being made fit for cultivation, the D.C. recommends sanction to the proposal of the local Officers for the Cancellation of their inam Tenure and their disposal under darkhast Rules to the best advantage of the mutt. The M.C. has stated that he would take necessary further action in the matter in consultation with the Supdt of Inam Settlement, on receipt of sanction to the lease of S.No 138.

4) In the circumstances, the M.C's recommendation for sanctioning the lease of S.No. 138 for a period of 90 (Ninety) years to Dasanna Gowda is for Orders. It is for Consideration if the period of Lease may not be reduced to a much lower limit. 5) The M.C's proposal may be sanctioned. The other limits (A)

2 in Vms Vellore have also been leased out for a similar period
